VOLUME CVI.---NO. 201. ALEXANDRIA, VA., FRIDAY EVENING, AUGUST 25, 1905. PRICE 2 CENTS.

BAD STOMACH MAKES BAD BLOOD.

You can't make sweet butter in a foul churn. Every farmer's wife knows this. Your stomach churns and digests the food you eat, and if foul, torpid or out of order, your whole system suffers from blood poisoning. You will have foul breath, coated tongue, bad taste, poor appetite and a whole train of disagreeable symptoms. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, which is not a beverage composed of whisky or alcohol, being entirely free from intoxicants, is a great regulator and invigorator of the Stomach, Liver and Bowels.

"About a year ago I was ill with blood poisoning," writes Miss Eveline Louis, of 89 Walter Street, Buffalo, N. Y. "I had what seemed to be a small cold sore on my lip. It became very angry in appearance and began to spread until it nearly covered my face. I was a frightful sight and could not go outside the house because of my appearance. I used a blood medicine which did not give me any relief. Then I began to take your 'Golden Medical Discovery.' I was greatly benefited with the first bottle and after taking the second bottle was completely cured. The erysipelatous eruption disappeared and my blood was cleansed. My complexion is clear and fresh and I have felt better this year than I did for some time before. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is certainly a most remarkable medicine."

Don't accept a substitute for a medicine which performs such cures and which has a uniformly successful record of nearly forty years to its credit. It's an insult to your intelligence for a dealer to try by over-persuasion to palm off upon you in its stead some inferior article with no record to back it up. You know what you want; it is his business to meet that want.

$50,000 GIVEN AWAY, in copies of The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser, a book that sold to the extent of 500,000 copies a few years ago, at $1.50 per copy. Last year we gave away $20,000 worth of these invaluable books. This year we shall give away $50,000 worth of them. Will you share in this benefit? If so, send only 21 one-cent stamps to cover cost of mailing only, for book in stiff paper covers, or 31 stamps for cloth-bound. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Constipation although a little ill, begets big ones if neglected. Dr. Pierce's Pellets cures constipation.

THE PEOPLE ALL

In Chorus Cried, Give Us Newbro's Herpicide.

This word of late has been in everyone's mouth, and many are wondering what the word signifies, though no one has yet been found, who will deny that NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE does the work. Well, for the information of thousands of people who like to know all about a good thing, we would say that HERPICIDE means, a destroyer or killer of "Herpes," Now "Herpes" is the family name of a disease caused by various vegetable parasites. A similar microbe causes dandruff, itching scalp, and falling hair; this is the microbe that NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE promptly destroys; after which the hair grows. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

FRANCE AND MOROCCO.

The French ministers under the presidency of Premier Rouvier held a lengthy special session yesterday. It was principally devoted to a consideration of the disciplinary measures to be taken against Morocco should the Sultan not yield to the demands of the government for returns for the recent arrest of a Franco-Algerian citizen.

An official communication says that unanimous approval was given to the instructions to be sent to the French minister at Fez, St. Rene Taillandier, and to the subsequent action to be taken to compel the Sultan to give complete satisfaction.

The nature of this action is not disclosed, but it is known that it contemplates the military occupation of a Moroccan town near the Algerian frontier, probably Oudjaowing, to its proximity to a large French garrison in Algeria, and to its strategic importance, as it commands the route to the interior of Morocco and the capital, Fez. The latest official advices from Fez show that the Sultan continues to hold the Algerian a prisoner.

Following the meeting, Premier Rouvier sent instructions to the French Minister to demand the immediate release of the prisoner, informing him that a military demonstration would be made in case of a negative response.

Later it was announced that the ministers had decided that in case Morocco refused the French demands, the entire personnel of the French Legation would leave Morocco simultaneously with the military demonstration.

All the leading powers have approved the determination and firm action of the French government.

A military demonstration against Morocco was considered by the ministers to be preferable to a naval demonstration. The latter might involve international complications, as other powers, notably Germany, would probably send ships for the purpose of observing the French demonstrations.

Germany has thus far approved the French demands for redress, but fears are expressed in some quarters that the Sultan will refuse to yield, in the hope of securing the aid of Germany.

Boycott in Japan.

The anti-American Chinese boycott has reached Yokohama. The first indication of its presence was on July 26, when local Chinese refused to give any freight to the steamer Manchuria, due to leave for Hongkong on the 28th. The reason stated by the local Chinese, was that no coolies at Hongkong would dare to discharge such cargo. The movement slowly continued until on Sunday, August 6, a meeting of representative Chinese was held at the Chinese Hall of Commerce, Yokohama, when it was resolved: First—Not to deal in American goods. Second—Not to ship any goods on American steamers (more particularly to Chinese, as Chinese relatives would be punished). Third—That any Chinese merchant doing such business through another would be dealt with as if the business had been done by him. Fourth—Not to do business with any American banking or insurance company. Fifth—Some indulgence to be granted on account of the goods to be shipped to ports whither none but American steamers ply. Sixth—Any Chinese infringing these resolutions to be subject to a heavy fine. There are more Chinese than people of any other nationality in Yokohoma, the latest census giving 7,142.

J. L. Rodgers, the American consul-general at Shanghai, yesterday had an interview with the taotai, who said it was his intention to issue a proclamation ordering the Chinese merchants of Shanghai to resume their trading in American goods. Seemingly, however, the local officials are making only half-hearted efforts to stop the boycott.

Five Girls Murdered at Same Spot.

At almost the same spot, near Spring Grove Cemetery, Cincinnati, where five girls have been mysteriously murdered and more than a dozen attacked within a little more than a year, Elsie McGrath, aged 17, was found early yesterday almost dead. Everything indicates that the attack was the work of the same man, whose crimes have baffled the Cincinnati police. Miss McGrath was attacked while on her way home about 11 o'clock Wednesday night and lay in a lonely spot near the cemetery unconscious until discovered early yesterday. Though seriously injured, she will recover. The scene of the latest murder is called "Lovers' lane," because, until the murders committed by the mysterious slayer, it was a popular walk for young people. Since May, 1904, when the body of May McDonald was found, only persons absolutely compelled to travel in that locality have used that highway. Miss Louise Mueller was murdered in the summer of 1904 and in November last Alma Steingeweg was slain. Only women have been attacked, and, although they have not been slain, they have not escaped without injury. Some of them were armed and shots have been fired at the man, whom the police believe to be a madman.

Doctor Brigham Says

MANY PHYSICIANS PRESCRIBE Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

The wonderful power of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound over the diseases of womankind is not because it is a stimulant not because it is a palliative but simply because it is the most wonderful tonic and reconstructor ever discovered to act directly upon the generative organs, positively curing disease and restoring health and vigor.

Marvelous cures are reported from all parts of the country by women who have been cured, trained nurses who have witnessed cures and physicians who have recognized the virtue of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and are fair enough to give credit where it is due.

If physicians dared to be frank and open, hundreds of them would acknowledge that they constantly prescribe Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in severe cases of female ills, as they know by experience it can be relied upon to effect a cure. The following letter proves it.

"It gives me great pleasure to say that I have found Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound very efficacious, and often prescribe it in my practice for female difficulties.

"My oldest daughter found it very beneficial for uterine trouble some time ago, and my youngest daughter is now taking it for a female weakness, and is surely gaining in health and strength.

"I freely advocate it as a most reliable specific in all diseases to which women are subject, and give it honest endorsement."

Women who are troubled with painful or irregular menstruation, bloating (or flatulence), leucorrhœa, falling, inflammation or ulceration of the uterus, ovarian troubles, that bearing-down feeling, dizziness, faintness, indigestion, nervous prostration or the blues, should take immediate action to ward off the serious consequences, and be restored to perfect health and strength by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and then write to Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass., for further free advice. No living person has had the benefit of a wider experience in treating female ills. She has guided thousands to health. Every suffering woman should ask for and follow her advice if she wants to be strong and well.

Agonizing Burns

are instantly relieved, and perfectly healed by Bucklen's Arnica Salve. C. Rivenbark, jr., of Norfolk, Va., writes: "I burnt my knee dreadfully; that it blistered all over. Bucklen's Arnica Salve stopped the pain, and healed it without a scar." Also heals all wounds and sores. 25c at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons druggists.

A Warning to Mothers.

Too much care cannot be used with small children during the hot weather of the summer months to guard against bowel troubles. As a rule it is only necessary to give the child a dose of castor oil to correct any disorder of the bowels. Do not use any substitute, but give the oldfashioned castor oil, and see that it is fresh, as rancid oil nauseates and has a tendency to gripe. If this does not check the bowels give Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and then a dose of castor oil, and the disease may be checked in its incipiency and all danger avoided. The castor oil and this remedy should be procured at once and kept ready for instant use as soon as the first indication of any bowel trouble appears. This is the most successful treatment known and may be relied upon with implicit confidence even in in case of cholera infantum. For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

FRIDAY EVENING, AUG. 25, 1905.

THE CZAR OF RUSSIA has flatly rejected President Roosevelt's plan to bring about peace with Japan, and the outcome of the Portsmouth conference is as problematical now as ever, as the representatives of Russia and Japan are apparently as far apart as at first. Negotiations are now at an acute stage, and while the great mass of the civilized world is earnestly hoping that the belligerents will replace their swords in their scabbards, there are no indications of such a purpose at present, and but few would be surprised if the conflict should continue. It is believed by many that Emperor William desires to see the war continue in order that Russia may become exhausted in her endeavors to defend herself against the Japanese. On the other hand there is reason to suppose that most nations desire to see the dogs of war called off, and that President Roosevelt is their spokesman in attempts to bring the conflict to a speedy close. But a few days will elapse before the world will know whether or not this sanguinary war is to continue. Should peace negotiations fail there is no telling what the future will bring forth. Other nations are likely to become embroiled, and wars and rumors of wars may mark the first decade of the twentieth century.

SENATOR JOSEPH R. BURTON, of Kansas, in his transactions in Chicksaw warrants seems to have been getting money from the Indians under false pretenses, according to explanations made yesterday at the Interior Department. The Senator denies the charges as flatly as did Senator Mitchell when he was arraigned for irregularities which were afterwards proven. It remains to be seen whether Mr. Burton can prove his innocence. At any rate it is a sad reflection upon men holding the position of United States Senator when their honesty is impugned, and this is the second instance within the past few months. All men who pose as representatives of the people should be as Cæsar's wife, whether their position be lowly or exalted, but when men secure the confidence of States and become members of the highest legislative body of the country they should by all means keep their hands clean. Some Senators live and die poor men, but others known to be in straitened circumstances before election have accumulated colossal fortunes while holding such positions. These facts naturally cause many to propound questions that are not always answered satisfactorily.

A CRITICISM of the American Protestant churches was voted in New York Wednesday by Rev. G. Campbell Morgan, D. D., who has been working in the late Dwight L. Moody's place at East Northfield, Mass. Among other things he said: "The American church does not seem to be much more than a social organization now. It's members spend more time developing along social lines than they do along spiritual lines." The truth of the English divine's observation is becoming more apparent every day. The spirit of competition is often manifested, while in many cases the exertions to procure money for endless enterprises are more pronounced than those to save souls. The line between the church and the world is often as hard to fined as that marking the equator.

WITH a request for professional secrecy, the management of the New York Post Graduate Hospital announce the discovery of a vegetable fluid which is working marvels in the cure of consumption. The claim is made that the cures it has affected are positive and complete, the patients in each case showing absolutely no signs of a recurrence of the disease. When it is considered that one person in every ten in that State dies of tuberculosis, and that a similar death percentage exists in many other States, the value of the new formula should it prove efficient may be appreciated.

HOCH, the alleged Bluebeard, seems to have a charmed life. He has thrice within the past few weeks been within the shaddow of the gallows without reaching the trap. He was to have been hanged today, but another of the law's delays has made it probable that he will be alive at the advent of the new year. The Supreme Court of Illinois is to review his case. This tribunal will not meet until October. The convicted murderer will not ask that his appeal be placed on the privileged docket, and his case may be the last considerd.

THE PROPER place to ascertain the true worth of a man is in the community in which he lives. At Scottsville, Senator Martin's home town, in Albemarle county, on Tuesday in the primary election, one hundred and fifty-one votes were cast and every one was for Martin. This shows what is thought of the Senator by the people with whom he has daily intercourse and speaks volumes for the esteem in which he is held by them all.

OVER a year ago when the Richmond papers were abusing Senator Martin for doing things which he had not done and for not doing things he had done, the Gazette stated that with these papers Senator Martin would be d—if he did and be d—if didn't, but that the Senator could and would be elected without their support. And he was—by a large majority!

PEOPLE who imagined last week's cool days were the beginning of fall have been undeceived. The katydids have only just begun their yearly controversy, and that, according to popular belief, means that the first frost is still some weeks away.

First Assistant Secretary of State Loomis will probably be appointed United States Ambassador to Brazil, to succeed Mr. E. P. Thompson, who is to be transferred as Ambassador to Mexico. While no official announcement has yet been made of the appointment of Mr. Loomis, it was learned today that the billet has been offered to him and that he is now contemplating a trip to Brazil for the purpose of looking over the ground with a view to ascertaing if the position would be acceptable. Should Mr. Loomis go to Brazil in the immediate future, as is now his intention, it would be as special commissioner of the United States to inquire into the trade relations of that country with this. It has been definitely known for the past three months, or since the Loomis-Bowen controversy, that Mr. Loomis would be transferred out of the Dapartment and given an ambassadorial position at some place acceptable to him. At the present time the only place open to Mr. Loomis is Brazil, and, is understood, the President has offered him the place with the understanding that eventually he will be transferred to a better place in Europe.

The State Department is growing rather anxious over the lack of news from Nicaragua regarding the imprisonment there of the Albars brothers, American citizens, who represent a Philadelphia fruit concern. Because of his efforts to obtain the release of these men United States Consul Donaldson, at Managua, incurred the displeasure of the Nicaraguan goverment, which cancelled his exequator. The State Department has cabled to United States Minister Merry to make immediately a cable report on the situation, stating whether or not the two Americans are still in prison, and if they have been given a trial.

In the matter of the tobacco seizure at New York by special treasury agents Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Reynolds said today: "In fact that the duty on this tobacco was paid at Tampa and that the tobacco was then shipped to New York is not in itself evidence of any violation of the law, although it is an unusual proceeding. When I heard of it I instructed treasury agents at New York to make the seizure if they found upon examination that the tobacco had not paid the proper duty. The charge is that some of the so-called filler packages contained enough wrapper tobacco to make the entire package dutiable at the higher wrapper rate. If it paid only the duty on filler tobacco at Tampa, the government will take steps to protect itself." Mr. Reynolds had received a report from New York to the effect that about one half of the 108 packages seized should have paid the wrapper duty. If it is shown that this payment was evaded by fraudulent methods, prosecutions will follow. If it was due to tax methods of inspections, there will be a shake up among treasury department officials at Tampa and perhaps other points.

The District police officials have determined hereafter to accept not less than $20 collateral from automobilists who violate the speed regulations and are arrested for the first time, and not less than $40 after the first offense. With collateral half this amount, violators deposited their money at the police stations and forfeited it by their failure to appear in Police Court the next day. Such deposits have had small tendency to stop the high speeding of machines. Numerous accidents have occurred. The accident at Newport in which Vinson Walsh, well known to the police on account of his fast driving of a machine, is said to have had something to do with the adoption of higher collateral.

Representative John Wesley Gaines, of Tennessee, is in town to take up the tobacco average errors with the Department of Agriculture. He wants the grand jury to investigate the facts in the case. The mistakes in the June report, later corrected with the explanation that they occurred through unfamiliarity of the officials at that time, with the tobacco work, he believes were wilfully made. He has a letter from Secretary Wilson showing the miscalculations.

The State Department has received a cablegram from the United States consul general at Yokohoma to the effect that the steamship Australia, owned by the Spreckels of San Francisco, has been seized by the Japanese. The reason is not stated, and no details are given.

In geographical division of prosecutions Pennsylvania led with 94, New York had 77, Ohio 35, California 29 and Missouri 23.

Loading pig iron while it is hot is the way the furnaces within a radius of forty miles of Reading are now shipping their product. There is such a demand for it that they are sending it away before it cools. Nearly all of the furnaces in eastern Pennsylvania are in active operation, and the output is being disposed of as rapidly as it is produced.

That the typhoid fever situation in Baltimore is becoming serious was evidenced last night by reports of fever cases secured from the various hospitals of the city. Not only are there over 140 cases at these institutions, but reports have been made to the Health Department of private cases in families scattered throughout the municipality, and in addition to this the malady has gained a foothold in the counties.

Mrs. Robert Jamisson, keeper of a Paterson, N. J., boarding-house, was scalded about the hands and face yesterday by the explosion of a large huckleberry pie. The pie had been baked without any airholes in the top, and was placed upon the dinner table steaming hot. After the boarders had seated themselves the boarding mistress sunk a knife into the crust, and the pie burst open with a report that could be heard all over the house. The juice scattered over the table, spattering and staining the clothes of the boarders.

SWANSON MADE NO PROMISES.

"The slate-makers may guess and the newspapers may print what they can get from others," said Congressman Swanson yesterday, just before he left for his home at Chatham. "I have not made a solitary promise to anyone and no indication of who will be named for any place has been made by me. I will not think of those things until after the election. That will be time enough.

"I have not taken up the matter of quitting Congress, and do not know when I shall. There is a long time between now and the time for going into the executive chair. That will be taken up at the proper time.

"I want to repeat that I shall go into office absolutely untrammelled and without any sort of obligation to anyone."

"Governor Swanson" is the manner in which the successful candidate for the nomination is being addressed. Mr. Swanson came down to his headquarters for about five minutes yesterday, shook hands with a few friends, packed up his belongings and hied himself away.

"I'm going home to rest for about a week," said the Fifth district man. "I want to get about two nights of good sleep and then to rest. I shall attend to some farm work, for I am still a farmer, and after that I shall come back here, stay a day or two and then I am off to Thousand Islands or somewhere to rest and fish for a week or ten days.

"This has been a hard campaign, and I have worked to the utmost of my ability. I have not been to my district since last October, but the vote up there shows what my people think of me. There is where I have the best friends that ever any man had. And I have them all over the State.

"I shall make a campaign this fall which will open the eyes of the people. I want to make as many speeches as a man can make in the time intervening and the expressions from the gentlemen who were in the race against me are appreciated. I expected nothing less. Had I been unsuccessful I should have done just what they did."—[Richmond News Leader.

Storm in Baltimore.

Lightning played queer pranks during a furious electrical and rainstorm, which swept over Baltimore yesterday afternoon. A bolt struck the tower of the Eastern Female High School and set it on fire. The flagstaff was hurled across the street and fell between two men. Another bolt struck the ferry-house at the foot of Broadway and scattered a shower of splinters over the ferryboat Taggart. The gas tips and the stovepipe in the office were knocked off, and ink wells thrown from the desks. James Wells and H. C. Wheeler were injured by shock. A very peculiar feature of the rain was the fact that the force of the wind stretched out the drops of rain and caused a peculiar reflection of the light which caused the drops to resemble snow. In the height of the storm there was a small panic on the big Tolchester Beach excursion steamer Louise. The wind hurled the steamer against a dock on the south side of the harbor, demolishing part of the pier and breaking bolts in the rudder board of the steamer. The excursionists were thrown from their feet. Women began to scream, and a serious panic was only averted by the coolness of the officers.

Oil Slip Struck by Lightning.

Struck by lightning during a terrific storm which swept over Staten Island and the lower part of the upper New York bay at midnight Wednesday, the ship Mulberry Hill, laden with case oil and naptha, lying in the stream, midway between Tompkinsville and Stapleton, was burning early yesterday morning, lighting up the bay from the Battery to Sandy Hook. The crew of twenty-four men left the ship after the fire started and landed at Stapleton. The lightning hit the mainmast and passed down the steel pole into the hold, where there was an explosion. Smoke began to show at once, and rockets and lights were burned. Finding their alarms were unheeded, the men lowered the boats and made for the shore. Five minutes after the alarm was given, one of the hatches, about amidships, blew up. The flames poured through the hatch and sprang into the shrouds and began to eat away the sails and cordage. After these burned, the fire settled down into the hold, where explosion followed explosion.

MURDER AND SUICIDE.

Capt. E. W. Jones, of Company E, Seventy-first Virginia Regiment, Virginia Volunteers, yesterday afternoon murdered Maud Robinson, better known as Maud Cameron, and then attempted to commit suicide by cutting his throat from ear to ear with a razor he had used in almost severing the head of the Cameron woman from her shoulders.

The tragedy occurred in the house, 157 Cove street, Norfolk, about 1:30 o'clock. There was no one in the Cove street house at the time of the tragedy but Captain Jones, the Cameron woman and another young woman, who gave her name as Mrs. E. W. Thompson.

The Thompson woman's statement is that Captain Jones came into the house under the influence of liquor and acted as an insane man. The Cameron woman refused to receive him and tried to reach the telephone to call for assistance, but he cut the phone off and when the woman attempted to free herself from him there was a desperate scuffle. The Thompson woman rushed to her assistance, but Captain Jones drew a razor and threatened to cut her throat if she did not return up stairs. She rushed from the house, screaming for help, and while in the street she heard the Cameron woman cry for assistance. Rushing into the house the Thompson woman found the Cameron woman where she had fallen out of the back door, lying with her partially severed head on the pavement outside, with her feet resting on the floor just inside of the door. After cutting the Cameron woman's throat, Captain Jones rushed through the front lower hallway of the house and, standing in front of the door leading to the Cameron woman's room, cut his own throat with the razor which he had broken. He then threw himself across the magnificently covered bed. Lying there only a minute, Captain Jones jumped up and, rushing to the back of the house, threw himself down by the side of the dead woman. It was there he was found. Captain Jones, semiconscious from the loss of blood, made no statement.

The cause of the tragedy is unknown at this time. The Thompson woman says that Captain Jones came to the Cove street house last week, but that he had not been in the habit of visiting there.

The dead woman was 23 years old. She went to Norfolk from North Carolina several years ago after graduating from a convent and had been living in handsomely furnished apartments for sometime.

She met Jones, who became infatuated with her, and she returned his affection. Each, it is said, was intensely jealous of the other, and this jealousy caused yesterday's tragedy.

Capt. Jones's infatuation for the woman became known to his brother officers of the Seventy-first regiment during the funeral exercises over the remains of Gen. Fitzhugh Lee, in Richmond, when the woman created a scene, which resulted in Capt. Jones being arraigned before a court-martial on the return of the regiment. A similar scene occurred during the Memorial Day exercises in Norfolk when Capt. Jones left his command in the cemetery when ordered to do do by Maude Cameron, and he again had to explain his conduct to a court-martial.

Though advised to do so by his brother officers, Jones refused to give up the girl. A short time ago she jilted him, driving him into a mental condition closely bordering on insanity. When he left his home yesterday morning Jones seemed perturbed. He went to his office, where he announced that he was not feeling well and would not return during the day. Going to his apartments he secured a razor, and two hours later appeared at the home of the Cameron woman, where he was refused admittance. Witnesses of the tragic events that followed say Jones, who was usually of a quiet and retiring disposition, seemed like a maniac. After the tragedy Jones was removed to the Hospital St. Vincent de Paul, where every effort is being made to save his life. The attending surgeons do not believe he will survive. During the recent factional fight between dual police boards Capt. Jones was elected chief of police and was ejected from office by the Virginia Supreme Court's decision Jones is about 30 years odl and unmarried. He is a lumber inspector, and popular among a large circle of friends.

Hitch in Negotiations.

Portsmouth, N. H., Aug. 25.—Dollars and cents constitute practically the only barrier between the conclusion of peace of the continuation of the war between Russia and Japan. It comes from a high authority that the negotiations now in progress are centered more directly upon the question, as to the amount of money that Russia shall pay Japan, rather than on the prtnciple of indemnity, as has heretofore been maintained. This authority declares that nothwithstanding the profuse and emphatic utterances of officials of the Russian government, to the contrary, the Czar has been brought to recognize the fact that a certain monetary consideration must be paid to the Japanese if peace is to come. There is not more than a few hundred million dollars difference between the two governments in these negotiation. Every other unsettled article of the Japanese demands is succeptible of satisfactory adjustment. They can be settled without involving the principle payment of war tribute. In other words the moment Russia and Japan reach a determination as to the amount of money that is to be handed over for many specified purposes which constitute legitimate charges, the negotiations that follow will be confined largely to the working out of details. Up to 10 o'clock this morning, M. Witte declared that he could not discuss the nature of the advices he had received from the Czar.

Portsmouth, N. H., Aug. 25.—A hitch of such gravity has occurred in the peace negotiations between Russia and Japan as to threaten the postponement of the conference set for Saturday afternoon.

Mr. Korostovitz, speaking for the Russian envoys, announced this morning that no decision as to the matter had been reached. "But unless Japan recedes from the position she has taken," he said, "there will be a meeting on Saturday and that will be the last one, unless, in the meantime, there should be mediation by the powers or President Roosevelt comes forward with some new proposition."

M. Sato, the Japanese spokesman, put the matter in a different light. He believes the meeting will be held at the proposed time and that other meetings will follow. "Japan, however," he declared, "has said her last word on Saghalin."

Last evening and during the entire night there were exchanges between the envoys here and their respective governments. The great secrecy which surrounds the movements of the Japanese made it impossible to ascertain the extent to which the general agitation extended to their headquarters. But with the Russians it was different. The secretaries and many members of their suite were seen hurrying from one room to another. M. Witte's apartments were the centre of all this activity. The "big chief" was not in the best of humor, either.

The utterances of Count Lansdorff at St. Petersburg, during the day, displeased him greatly. The declaration of the Russian premier that there should be no payment of indemnity and no cession of territory, coming at the time it did, was taken by M. Witte as an attempt to take the negotiations out of his hands, at least so far as the Russian public was concerned.

The attitude of M. Witte in this regard is mystifying, as the Russian envoy had already taken and consistently maintained that same position for public consumption.

What there was in Count Lamsdorff's declaration of "no cession, no indemnity," that made it differ from the similar utterances of M. Witte up to the last few hours cannot be discerned. Some think that while the battle cry remained unchanged, the Russian government is contemplating seriously the necessity of meeting Japanese demands and that the published utterances of the Russian prime minister have been put out as a blind or for the purpose of casting upon M. Witte the odium of having acceded to demands that are very displeasing to the Russian people.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., Aug. 25.—Baron Kaneko, the Japanese man of mystery, visited President Roosevelt for the sixth time this morning, presumably to lay before him an important communication from the Tokio government. It was raining dismally when he arrived. "What is the outlook for peace, this morning?" asked one of the newspaper correspondents. "Like the weather," he replied, pointing with a smile to the gloomy clouds. "What do you think of Count Lamsdorff's statement that Russia will pay no money or cede no territory?" "I think he is making a mistake," said Baron Kaneko. "Do you think he is bluffing?" "Oh, it seems to be official, and I guess we'll have to swallow it," was the baron's conclusion. The consultation with the President lasted until about 11:20, when Baron Kaneko returned to the village to take the 12:20 p. m. train for Long Island City.

When Knaeo returned from Sagamore Hill he was in great good humor as usual and talked very freely about the situation being careful however to conceal the real object of his visit. In reply to questions from newspaper men Kaneo said there was a deaklock.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 25.—A report is in circulation here to the effect that reactionaries are trying to induce the Czar to issue a manifesto announcing that, owing to the treachery of Japan, the war will go on, and calling on all Russians to rally to the support of their country, for a life or death struggle.

London, Aug. 25.—The feeling among members of the diplomatic corps in this city in regard to the outcome of the peace negotiations at Portsmouth, is optimistic, despite the unsatisfactory nature of the dispatches. There is a hopeful belief that peace will be announced soon.

Moses Haas, for whose arrest, in connection with the cotton scaudal, a warrant was issued Wednesday surrendered himself this afternoon to the federal authorities in New York.

Fraud Exposed.

A few counterfeiters have lately been making and trying to sell imitations of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, and other medicines, thereby defrauding the public. This is to warn you to beware of such people who seek to profit through stealing the reputation of remedies which have been successfully curing disease, for over 35 years. A sure protection, to you, is our name on the wrapper. Look for it, on all Dr. King's or Bucklen's remedies, as all others are mere imitations. H. E. From Richmond.

[Special Dispatch to the Alexandria Gazette.]

Richmond, Aug. 25.—Gossip here is along the lines that there will be a three-cornered fight for Congress in the Fifth district to succeed Mr. Swanson. R. A. James, of the Danville Register, Senator G. J. Harvey, of Patrick, and Judge E. M. Saunders, of Franklin, are looked upon as possible candidates. If Saunders runs it seems likely that Harvey will support him and succeed him as Circuit Judge.

Gov. Montague denies that he has any idea of running for Congress either in the Fifth or Third diitrict. He will more likely open a law office and remain in Richmond.

Lightning, Hail, Rain and Wind.

New Haven, Conn., Aug. 25.—Lightning, rain, hail and wind played havoc all over Connecticut last night. Only one death resulted from the series of thunder storms that thrashed around the state, but much damage was done to crops and property. There were numerous fires. In this city the wind tore up many trees. A number of places were struck by lightning, but no great damage reported. William Shaw, of Brookline, N. H., was struck by lightning and instantly killed in Unionville, while a companion, Hugh M. Chesney, of Newark, N. J., who stood by his side was unhurt. The hail, wind, and rain did damage estimated at between $100,000 and $200,000, to the tobacco crops.

New York, Aug. 25.—Lightning set fire to the Brush Terminal Company's warehouses on Forty-sixth street, Brooklyn, and to the ship Marlborogh Hill, loaded with oil and naptha, which was just across the narrows from the warehouses, at midnight last night. Both fires burned within sight of each other. The whole Brooklyn fire department was called. Fifteen thousand bales of cotton were lost in the warehouse blaze, and the damage is estimated at $500,000.

Another German Note.

Paris, Aug. 25.—The correspondent of the Publishers' Press has learned that another German note on Morocco relating to the proposd international conference to consider Moroccan affairs, is expected to reach Premier Rouvier, tomorrow. This note does not touch on the vital questions of French interests and French rights in Morocco, but merely discusses the terms of the conference and the conditions to which any reforms must be subjected. This is a great disappointment to France, whose rights have not yet been defined, despite the fine words and the general tenor of all the German notes and the general tone of the interviews which Prince von Radolin, the German Ambassador, has had with Premier Rouvier. Nevertheless, France considers that the convention of July 8, protects her rights along broad lines, and feels that she is justified, therefore, in pursuing her own policy.

Twenty-five Lives Lost.

Trinidad, Colo., Aug 25.—Twenty-five lives were reported lost and a score of houses washed away by a cloud burst which swept down Delagua canon last night. All the victims were Italian mine laborers and their families. The branch line of the Colorado and Southern Railroad was washed out and the request for a relief train could not be complied with. After 10 o'clock all the wires leading to the afflicted towns were out. Early in the night a fierce storm arose. Two Colorado and Southern Railroad bridges between Trinidad and Derwind were swept out and shortly afterward the debris coming down the canon showed that dwellings had been destroyed. No bodies could be discovered. Delagua canon is a narrow gorge and at the camp there were about fifty small dwellings on either side with the bed of the canon used as the main street of the camp.

Holds Up and Kisses Girls.

Bayonne, N. J., Aug. 25.—More than half a dozen Bergen Point girls and young married women have been held up, squeezed, kissed and hugged within the last few weeks. A special guard was set to catch the hugger and for a while he seemed to have been frightened away from the place, but now he is back again. Unless he can be chased away soon, there will not be an unkissed girl left in Bergin Point. The latest victim is Miss Adele Donnelly, who was caught in the Boulevard while coming home from a church meeting and roundly kissed, despite the fact that she struggled so hard her clothes were torn. When the girl arrived home she fainted from fright before she could tell her story. Those who have been kissed say that the masher has a moustache and that he wears a black mask.

Assaulted and Robbed.

Philadelphia, Aug. 25.—Directly beneath the window of Mayor Weaver's office in the City Hall, and in the deep dry moat surrounding that building, an unknown man was found unconscious and bleeding early this morning. His skull was fractured, he had several deep cuts on the face and head, and his pockets were turned inside out. He had evidently been beaten, robbed, and then thrown into the moat beneath the Mayor's windows. The injured man, who was removed to the Hahnemann Hospital, is still unconscious, and will probably die.

An Irade From the Sultan.

Constantinople, Aug. 25.—The Sultan has issued an irade forbidding Egyptian Mohammedans from coming to Constantinople. Ever since the recent attempt made to assassinate him, the Sultan has felt that liberal Mohammedans are planning his overthrow. As the Egyptians are liberal Moslems Abdul Hamid is taking precautions to see that they shall not have an opportunity to influence the conservative population of Constantinople.

To be Expelled from the Service.

London, Aug. 25.—The correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph Company, at St. Petersburg, wires that he has learned on good authority that all the officers of Rear Admiral Nebogatoff's squadron, who were concerned in the surrender of their vessels to the Japanese in the great naval battle of the Sea of Japan, will be expelled from the navy.

Fire in Baltimore.

Baltimore, Aug. 25.—The most disastrous fire that has visited Baltimore since the great conflagration broke out this morning from the building occupied by F. Bergner & Co., 308 and 310 west Pratt street, a five-story structure, devoted to picture frame manufacturing and novelty business. The fire was caused by an explosion of celluloid used in the manufacture of the frames. Two firemen were seriously injured by falling walls. Between 150 and 200 employes were at work in the building at the time of the outbreak, but all have been accounted for uninjured. Loss $200,000, partially injured.

Kills Bear with a Knife, Saving Judge's Life.

Denver, Col., Aug. 25.—Gen. Frank D. Baldwin has proved himself a hero. The general was a member of a hunting party on a United Reservation, in Utah, recently, when Judge Parker, of Trinidad, Col., ran across a hugh grizzly. The judge promptly put two bullets into the bear, but failed to hit a vital spot. The maddened beast charged upon the judge, who ran for a tree, but fell as he reached it. Just as the bear was about to seize the judge, General Baldwin dashed up and, with a single thrust from his big hunting knife, pierced the beast, felling it instantly.

Yellow Fever.

New Orleans, Aug. 25.—As only 44 new cases of yellow fever and seven deaths were reported yesterday, there is much reason for the expressed hope that the fever is well in hand, and will probably soon be stamped out. The conditions in the country are less encouraging. A number of new cases have been reported at Bayou Boeuf, in Assumption parish.

New Orleans, Aug. 25.—At 2 o'clock there were 19 new cases of yellow fever and three deaths from the disease reported.

Virginia Officials in Philadelphia.

Philadelphia, Aug. 25.—By direction of Dr. A. A. Cairns, chief medical inspector of the Bureau of Health, the workings of the bureau were fully explained yesterday to Drs. Williams and Newton, of the Health Department of Richmond, Va., who are in the city to make a study of health conditions here. The visitors propose to take the Philadelphia department methods for a model upon which to reorganize the department at Richmond.

Servians and Bulgarians Fight.

Monastir, Macedonia, Aug. 25.—A desperate battle between a Servian band and a band of Bulgarians has been fought near Margora. The Servians, who were commanded by Col. Gligore, attacked the Bulgarian camp. The battle lasted for four hours. The Bulgarians lost 39 men, while the casualties among the Servians numbered seven.

Paper Box Factory Destroyed.

Providence, R. I., Aug. 25.—The paper box factory of Jenks Brothers, employing 200 hands, was destroyed by fire this morning. Two firemen were injured, but not seriously, by falling from a roof. The loss on the stock and machinery is estimated at $75,000 and on the building at $50,000. The cause of the fire has not as yet been ascertained.

New York Stock Market.

New York, Aug. 25.—The stock market developments in the market through the first hour have been in line with the readjustment of speculative accounts to what is regarded as a position of assured safety in expection of movements in several of the pooled and closely held stocks in which a short interest is believed to exist. Selling orders came from many sources after the opening and during the early trading, and there seemed to be an absolute withdrawal of support from many of the leading stocks. The purchases by arbitrage brokers exceeded the sales in the first hour by 20,000 shares.

North Virginia Baptists.

The twenty-eighth annual session of the North Virginia Baptist Association, comprising 98 churches and a membership of 9,026, situated in the counties of Alexandria, Culpeper, Fairfax, Fauquier, Loudoun, Madison, Orange, Prince William, Page, Rappahannock, Stafford, Shenandoah and Warren in Virginia, and Jefferson in West Virginia, convened in Charlestown, W. Va., Wednesday in Zion Baptist Church.

The introductory sermon was preached by Rev. L. L. Msrshall, D. D., of Culpeper, his theme being "The Gospel Message." The organization re-elected all the old officers, as follows: Moderator, Rev. M. D. Williams, of Manassas,; clerk, Prof. A. T. Shirley, of Herndon; treasurer, John Johnson, of Manassas.

Rev. Edgar E. Ricks, of Washington, delivered a discourse on "Why We Are Baptists," and Prof. J. H. Johnston, president of Virginia Industrial Institute, of Petersburg, made an address in the interest of education. The services were interspersed with devotional exercises. There are about 75 delegates in attendance.

Sir Thomas Lipton while in Glasgow today said it would be futile for him to issue another challenge under the rules of measurements of the New York club.

A CARD OF THANKS.

I desire to return my sincere thanks for the many expressions of sympathy from people in my adopted city, as well as others, in the sorrow into which I have been cast by the fatal accident to my only child, Eddie Ramsey. These manifestations will be green spots in my soul throughout life.

Local Matters.

Sun and Tide Table.

Sun rises tomorrow at 5:22 and sets 6:42. High water at 3:25 a. m. and 3:53 p. m.

Weather Probabilities.

For this section showers and cooler tonight. Saturday fair; light to fresh north to northeast winds.

The Weather.

The weather throughout yesterday was of a depressing nature, the mercury standing near the 90° mark. At 10 o'clock the humidity was high and its effects were felt everywhere, the light southeasterly breeze bringing no relief. Between five and six o'clock in the evening the heavens became cloudy with evidences of an approaching shower and a temporary relief. The wind changed to the northwest and for a short time refreshed man and beast. It proved to be short-lived, however, and after dark the temperature resumed its normal condition, when mosquitoes added to the discomforts of a hot night.

Shortly before noon the wind blew again from the northwest and in a short time the mercury fell ten degrees. A copious rain, lasting about half an hour, set in, which was followed by others during the afternoon.

Street Improvements.

The granite curbing on Prince street, between Fairfax and Lee, has been nearly completed, and the work of removing the cobblestones and plowing up the square is now in progress, preparatory to the spreading of the concrete. By early fall another square of vitrified brick work will have been added to Alexandria's street improvements. Lee street, between Prince and Duke, will soon appear in a similar dress. Many granolithic sidewalks have been laid on King street and in places on other thoroughfares during the past few years, and more are to follow. With street improvements and the recent sewering on many streets and the erection of new buildings, Alexandria has been materially improved of late, which is evidenced by the advance in the prices of property and rents.

Residence Robbed.

A residence on Washington street was entered and robbed of a number of articles last night. The entrance was effected by scaling a back fence and breaking through the rear portion of the house. Many articles were scattered about the rooms of the house, and there was every reason to believe that boys were the burglars. It has become a common occurrence of late for people who leave their houses for a few days during the summer months to return and find evidences of robbery or vandalism. Others who have taken their families on excursions for one day have, upon returning home, found their fruit trees denuded and grape vines raided as well as damaged.

Pond on Alexander Island.

Col. Hoxie, engineer in charge of Potomac river improvements, has submitted his report upon the pond of stagnant water on Alexander Island. Complaint reached the office of the Commissioners of the District of Columbia from several sources that the pond caused by the construction of an embankment by the railroad company across Roach's run had resulted in a nuisance. The locality being outside the jurisdiction of the District of Columbia, the matter was referred to the War Department. Col. Hoxie's report shows that no action by the War Department "would be practicable or appropriate, and that it is probable the railroad company at an early day will remove the cause of complaint."

The New Ferry Wharf.

The new ferry house and slip at the foot of King street have been virtually completed, the only work remaining to be done being in the nature of interior arrangements. Every convenience for passengers has been provided for in the new ferry house, and patrons of the line in passing to and from the boats will be under cover, the house-work covering the space from the Strand to the steamer. The new ferry boat which has been in course of construction at Wilmington, Del., will be launched on Monday next, and Mayor Paff and some other Alexandria officials have been invited to be the guests of the Washington and Norfolk Company on the occasion.

In the Weeds.

About ten days ago a colored man named Reeves, living near the corporation line of the southwestern section of the city, shot his wife and made his escape. The woman has nearly recovered from her injuries, but Reeves has not yet been captured. Concerning this affair Chief Webster said today that Reeves is in hiding in the grass and weeds that have grown so high during the summer and that he supposes the officers will have to wait till fall when the weeds die and can be burned and then Reeves will be smoked out.

Death of Mr. Miffleton.

Mr. James Miffleton, son of the late Henry Miffleton, died suddenly at his home on Commerce street at 7:45 o'clock this morning. The deceased had been a sufferer from organic disease for some time. He arose this morning as usual with no premonition of approaching death, but shortly after he had eaten his breakfast he became critically ill and he soon expired. Mr. Miffleton leaves a widow and one daughter. He was for many years an employee in the Southern Railway shops in this city.

Police Court.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

John Williams, colored, arrested by Officers Bell and Patterson charged with an assault on Mary Grisgby with a knife, was fined $5.

Baseball.

The St. Aloysius and the Alexandria baseball teams played a game on the old fair grounds yesterday evening, a very large crowd being present. Some very pretty plays were made on both sides, but the Washington players were the heavier batters and won the game by a score of 7 to 3. Gorman pitched for the home team and Noyes for the Aloysius. The demonstration after yesterday's game was a disgrace. While no doubt exists that the umpire was wrong in some of his decisions, yet it was plain that the Alexandrias could not have won the game, as some of the local team's errors were too expensive. The Alexandrias are putting up good games at all times, and can win games without the assistance of a crowd of hoodlums. The Alexandria team is composed of gentlemen, who wish to win the games on their own merits, and can do so; but they don't expect to win every time. A large crowd of citizens are attending the games and want to see good orderly ones. Besides a large number of ladies are also present at the various contests, and such occurrences as that of yesterday are not only disgusting to them, but also to the peace-loving baseball enthusiasts. Let us have good, orderly games without the interference of bystanders.

A Ghastly Sight.

Annoyed by an offensive odor from an adjoining room, patrons of Campbell's Hotel in Richmond yesterday complained to the clerk, whose investigation disclosed a ghastly scene. Prone upon the bed and lying in a pool of blood was the corpse of a man, with face and body badly discolored. He had on only a night-shirt, colored. He had apparently been dead several days. The man is E. C. Schock, of New York, traveling salesman for Stratton & Storm, cigarmakers. He came to the hotel last Friday, was registered and given a room. He was well dressed, of striking appearance and attractive manner. He spent considerable time away from the hotel, presumably attending to the trade he represented. He drank heavily for several days. He was last seen alive Tuesday afternoon and was at that time under the influence of liquor. An investigation will be made by the coroner, who does not suspect suicide, though a bottle found in the room contained medicine in which laudanum is an ingredient. The blood from the man's lung had saturated the bed, and it may have been that a hemorrhage was the cause of death.

Everybody's for September has been received from the Ridgeway-Thayer Company, of New York, and is decidedly the most interesting issue of this popular magazine. To "Frenzied Finance" is added a chapter of surpassing interest and brilliancy. Charles Edward Russell has a postscript to his "Greatest Trust in the World." In this number is the first installment of the life story of the greatest business woman in the world, Mrs. Ella Rawls Reader. A description is given of "The Voornit of Ghent" as organized industry, organized thrift and organized well being. Ellen Terry writes of the "Green Room," and Maxim Gorkey contributes an article. The fiction for this month is above the average, consisting of nine short stories.

THE GOVERNOR'S PATRONAGE.

Claude A. Swanson, of Pittsylvania county, will be inaugurated governor of Virginia February 1, 1906. His term will be for four years. Mr. Swanson has already served thirteen years in Congress, and the term for which he was last elected will expire March 4, 1907. He will tender his resignation and an election will probably be ordered, it is thought, at the time of the general election in November.

Governor Swanson will have a great deal of patronage to bestow when he assumes the executive chair. Among the positions he will be called upon to fill will be the following:

Adjutant general. It is understood that this position will be offered to Colonel George Wayne Anderson, now colonel commanding the Seventieth regiment.

The Governor will have to name ten members of the State Board of Agriculculture and Immigration, one for each congressional district.

Four of the five members of the board of directors of the State penitentiary will have to be named during his term—one each year for a term of five years.

A State commissioner of hospitals for a term of four years.

During his term he will be called upon to name four of the five members of the board of directors for each of the State hospitals.

Two members of the State corporation commission for a term of six years each.

There is also a staff of eighteen colonels to be named—the men who wear much gold braid, handsome uniforms and do the honors on State occasions. It is expected that they will come from all sections of the State.

Governor Swanson will be the first to occupy the new State capitol as a governor elected for a full term. Governor Montague will get into the building for just two months before the expiration of his term. It will fall to the lot of the incoming governor to name a large number of notaries and petty officials throughout the State.

It is accepted in newspaper circles that Ben. P. Owen, jr., who was private secretary to Governor Tyler, will be named as secretary to Mr. Swanson. No name has been suggested for executive clerk, though friends of Samuel W. Bigger, who holds that position at this time, hope he will be retained.—[Richmond News-Leader.

PEACE PROSPECTS.

President Roosevelt is reported to have made an appeal to both Russia and Japan to leave the question of the purchase price of the northern half of the Island of Sakhalin to the arbitrament of a commission. According to a dispatch from the St. Petersburg correspondent of a European news agency, Count Lamsdorff, the Russian Foreign Minister, declares Russia will pay no contribution direct or indirect, nor will it make any cession of territory. Emperor William has expressed his cordial recognition of President Roosevelt's efforts for peace. The Krupps have received orders from Japan for armor plate and guns costing $11,250,000. There is a growing French sentiment that Russia is losing ground by her delay in accepting the peace terms.

A high financial authority in St. Petersburg declares that it will be impossible for Russia to continue the war. The foreign capatalists who subscribed the £120,000,000 war loans are not likely to give another penny, and the internal loan has proved a drug on the market, only 7,000,000 to 20,000,000 roubles having been taken up. The resources of the treasury are, it is added, so exhausted that within a few days it will have to abandon the artificial stimulation of bonds. There remains the alternative of reversion to paper currency or the forcible appropriation of the wealth of the monasteries if Russia must continue the war.

The report has reached the Russians in M. Witte's suite at Portsmouth N. H., that Emperor William may go to Peterhof to see the Czar. It was stated in cable dispatches that he had sent an officer of his staff to St. Petersburg. A military man is used in Germany and Russia for private messages between sovereigns. The report is regarded at Portsmouth as significant, for the last time that the Emperor saw the Czar the result was a stiffening of the Russian backbone. If Emperor William arranges to meet the Czar again it would hardly mean that Berlin was more anxious for peace than it was sometime ago.

Chairman Slemp, who has opened political headquarters in Roanoke, announces that the republican State campaign will be opened in Harrisonburg on Saturday, September 2, when Judge Lewis, the nominee for Governor, and other distinguished speakers will address the voters.

Robert Lee Syrcle, indicted for participation in the democratic primary election frauds and who has been missing for sometime, in Richmond, has been located in Boston, Mass. He will surrender himself to the Richmond officers within the next 10 days.

Samuel F. Keeler, aged 70, of Allendale, N. J., has sworn out a warrant for the arrest of his daughter, Viola D. Keeler, aged 19. He claims she stole his savings amounting to $170 and a diamond ring and eloped with George Butler.

The Gulf Stream.

New York and vicinity will become famous as a winter resort if the Gulf Stream keeps up its tendency in that direction. There is evidence that the big stream of warm water from the Gulf is many miles nearer Sandy Hook than ever before in the history of current observations. The nearness of the Gulf Stream is one explanation of the warm water at the beaches this year. The old "steadies" who swim at Manhattan Beach every day while the pavilion is open declare that they never knew the water to be so warm as it is this year. All the regular swimmers agree that the water along Coney Island has been consistently warmer this summer than at any time in their experience. Scientists are unable to explain this vagary of the Gulf Stream. In fact, scientists have never been able to explain much about the stream. They know it is out there in the ocean, about 100 miles from Sandy Hook, and that it is about 300 miles wide at that point. Long Island real estate men are already making use of the Gulf Stream to advertise their property. Some of them assert that the Gulf Stream runs within 40 miles of Long Island in the wintertime, when it is pressed in by Arctic currents.

FRIDAY EVENING, AUG. 25, 1905.

Unhappy Dickens.

Dickens had to confess, after a severe trial of married life, that the skeleton in his domestic closet was becoming "a pretty big one." Then, in 1857, came the crisis.

"Poor Catherine and I are not made for each other," he wrote in a letter to Forster, "and there is no help for it. She is exactly what you know in the way of being amiable and complying, but we are strangely ill assorted for the bond that is between us. God knows she would have been a thousand times happier if she had married another kind of man, and her avoidance of this destiny would have been at least equally good for us both. The years have not made it easier to bear for either of us. There is plenty of fault on my side, I dare say, in the way of a thousand uncertainties, caprices and difficulties of disposition, but only one thing will alter all that, and that is the end which alters everything."

Where Silence Is Golden.

This story is illustrative of the absolute silence and loneliness of the typical Australian bush camp:

Two men were camping together, but rarely exchanged a word.

One morning one of the men remarked at breakfast, "Heard a cow bellow in the swamp just now."

Nothing further was said, and they went about their business for the rest of the day. Twenty-four hours later, once more at breakfast, the second man said:

"How d'you know it wasn't a bull?"

Again no comment. Again a pause of twenty-four hours. Next morning the first man began to pack up his "billy" and "swag."

"You going?" inquired the other.

"Yes."

"Why?"

"Because," said his friend, "there's too much argument in this camp."—Kansas City Star.

Seventeenth Century Wagons.

The introduction of stage wagons in England about the middle of the seventeenth century led to many abuses. In London they were known as "hell carts" on account of the hot time they gave the unfortunates inside. Their drivers were said to be "seldom sober, never civil and always late," and their size—copied by other vehicles—was such that when they broke down all traffic behind "was necessitated to stand stock still on most beastly deep, wet ways till it pleased them to jog on." During the reign of Charles II, parliament passed an act concerning the size of carts and wagons, with extremely heavy penalties for infringements, but when the act came to be applied it was discovered that the model prescribed by it was impracticable to such an extent that the judges gave directions not to enforce the act.

A Browning Enigma.

Elizabeth Barrett Browning has set quite a Homeric problem as to the place of her birth. The Encyclopaedia Britannica gives London, but the Dictionary of National Biography prefers Burn Hall, Durham, and there is an entry in the register of Kelloe church referring to "Elizabeth Barrett Moulton Barrett, daughter and first child of Edward Barrett Moulton Barrett of Coxhoe Hall." Browning himself, however, declared that his wife was born at Carlton Hall, Durham. Now, Carlton Hall is in Yorkshire. Finally the authorities are not agreed as to whether Mrs. Browning was born on March 4 or on March 6, but, of course, the outstanding fact is that she was born.—London Globe.

Not Perfect Without Mrs. Kingsley.

Even a brief holiday at the seaside was to Charles Kingsley too long an absence from his wife. "This place, 'tis perfect," he wrote on one occasion, "but it seems a dream and imperfect without you. Blessed be God for the rest, though I never before felt the loneliness of being without the beloved being whose every look and word and motion is the keynote of my life. People talk of love ending at the altar. Fools!"

The Limit to Their Credulity.

Kansas editors are skeptical. An exchange asked: "What do you think of an artist who painted cobwebs on a ceiling so naturally that the hired girl wore herself into an attack of nervous prostration trying to sweep them down?" Most of the editors say that there may have been such an artist, but there was never such a hired girl.—Kansas City Journal.

A Timely Warning.

Jimmy—What's the matter with you? You don't never go in for any fun at all nowadays. Tommy—No, I'm bein' good because I'm goin' to have a birthday purty soon an' I want to git a present. Jimmy—Better be careful an' not be too good or mebbe they won't give you nothin' but a Bible.—Philadelphia Press.

Out of Pocket, Though.

When General Lafayette attended Lamarque's funeral the crowd took the horses out of his carriage and drew him home themselves. "Were you not honored and pleased?" asked a friend. "Very much pleased," replied Lafayette, "but I never saw my horses again."

Colic and Diarrhoea—A Remedy that is Prompt and Pleasant.

The prompt results produced by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy together with its pleasant taste have won for it a place in many households. Mr. W. T. Taylor, a merchant of Winslow, Ala., writes: "I have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy myself and also with men on my place, for diarrhoea and colic and it always gives relief promptly and pleasantly." For sale by Gibson and Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

FOR OVER SIXTY YEARS

AN OLD AND WELL-TRIED REMEDY.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over sixty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for Diarrhoea. Is pleasant to the taste. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup and take no other kind.

Bluebeard.

"Who was the original Bluebeard?" asks a writer in the London Chronicle. He continues: "We owe the familiar Bluebeard of the pantomime to Charles Perrault, the Frenchman who published in 1696-97 his immortal stories of 'Bluebeard,' 'The Sleeping Beauty,' 'Little Red Riding Hood' and 'Cinderella.' But it is very uncertain who, if anybody, was Perrault's model for Bluebeard. Some have supposed that it was our Henry VIII., others that the tale is a lampoon upon the castle lords of knight errantry days in general. Perhaps the favorite candidate has been Gfles de Rais, marshal of France, who was hanged and burned in 1440 for an awful series of crimes. During fourteen years he was believed to have kidnaped about 150 children, tortured them, sacrificed them to the devil, burned their bodies and buried their bones in his castle grounds. But the resemblance between his tale and Bluebeard's is too slight to be convincing."

An Unmarried Widow.

It would appear that the standard of happiness of at least one African widow in Manhattan had reached high water mark, judging by this advertisement published a few days ago:

Widow, colored, age 34, with high school training, vocalist, excellent cook, desires a husband same age or younger; awful extremely fair, clean, sober, moral and never been married. Address WIDOW.

The following personal, printed in a metropolitan newspaper the other day, deserves a class by itself:

A European gentleman wishes to meet an American who is the typical daughter of all that is most admirable in our age; one gifted with the bold frankness of understanding, the enthusiasm of expectancy, the merry cheerfulness of superiority, the psychical and physical alertness of those of tomorrow; the worldly independence of this optimist must be duplicated; view, matrimony.
FESTINA LENTE.
—New York Press.

Knives For Brides.

The custom of giving knives to brides was formerly a common practice, when it was fashionable for women to wear knives sheathed and suspended from their girdles. A wedding offered an opportunity of presenting something novel or ornamental in the cutlery line, and frequent reference to such presents occurs in the plays of the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries. In the "Witch of Edmonton," 1648, for instance, the bride is described as wearing "the new pair of Sheffield knives, fitted to one sheath." A list of trinkets usually worn by ladies about 1560 includes girdles, knives, purses and pin cases. In Dekker's "Match Me In London," 1631, the bride says to her jealous husband:

"See, at my girdle hang my wedding knives;
With these dispatch me."

Indignation.

Law Notes relates that Albert E. Pillsbury, former attorney general of Massachusetts, on visiting the birthplace of Horace Greeley in Amherst, N. H., noticed that there was no placard about the place to inform the public of its historical interest. Accordingly he himself tacked on the house a card which read: "This is the birthplace of Horace Greeley." While he was engaged at this task a passing native paused to read the card, and, turning to Mr. Pillsbury, he remarked with some acidity: "The gall of some of you fellers that hev made money in the city is fairly sick'nin'. What do you suppose folks here care whether you was born on this farm or some other farm? Them's my sentiments, Mr. Greeley, and don't you forgit it!"

Grave Trouble Foreseen.

It needs but little foresight, to tell, that when your stomach and liver are badly affected, grave trouble is ahead, unless you take the proper medicine for your disease, as Mrs. John A. Young, of Clay, N. Y., did. She says: "I had neuralgia of the liver and stomach, my heart was weakened, and I could not eat. I was very bad for a long time, but in Electric Bitters, I found just what I needed, for they quickly relieved and cured me." Best medicine for weak women. Sold under guarantee by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists at 50c a bottle.

Never in the way, no trouble to carry, easy to take pleasant and never failing in results are DeWitt's Little Early Risers. These famous little pills are a certain guarantee against headache, biliousness, torpid liver and all of the ills resulting from constipation. They tonic and strengthen the liver. Cure Jaundice.
